STUBAI GLACIER
Way up high above 3000 m – that is winter on Stubai Glacier, with snow guaranteed from October until May. Austria's biggest glacier ski area is just a 45-minute drive from Innsbruck. 26 state-of-the-art cable car and lift facilities connect 36 easy to challenging ski runs. Also inspiring is the versatile BIG Family offer, Snowpark Stubai Zoo and the Freeride Powder Department. An excursion to the spectacular summit platform TOP OF TYROL 3210 m, which provides 360° panoramic views, is a unique experience.

KÜHTAI
Majestic skiing in Kühltai—guaranteed snow and winter fun in Austria's highest-altitude winter sports resort, at 2.020 meters. Thanks to ski-in/ski-out access, you can go directly from the slopes to the hotel entrance or to the free parking lots. Just 30 minutes from Innsbruck, winter sports enthusiasts can enjoy 49 kilometers of slopes and 12 modern lifts suitable for all skill levels. Even off the slopes, Kühltai offers a variety of winter experiences—from tobogganing and winter hikes to perfectly groomed cross-country ski trails.

INNSBRUCKER NORDKETTENBAHNEN
Lovers of natural snow will find exactly what they're looking for on the Nordkette. Just a few steps from Innsbruck's Old Town, the Hungerburg funicular and the Seegrube cable car take you directly to the Nordkette ski area. The highlight is the TOP OF INNSBRUCK at Hafelekar, where a 360° panorama awaits, offering views of Innsbruck, the Karwendel Nature Park, Austria's largest nature park, and everything the Nordkette has to offer in winter: varied slopes, freeride terrain, the world's only inner-city snow park, the Nordkette Skylinepark, and areas for kids and beginners.

PATSCHERKOFEL
At over 2,000 meters above sea level, winter on Innsbruck's local mountain is at its most beautiful. Just a ten-minute drive from Innsbruck, Patscherkofel offers the modern Patscherkofel cable car, family-friendly and challenging ski slopes, the legendary Olympic downhill run, the 15,000 m² Kofele's Kids' Area, marked ski touring and snowshoe trails, winter hiking paths all the way to the summit, a popular snow park, and eight outstanding mountain restaurants and huts with spectacular panoramic views.
